Intro

We are, in brief, friends specializing in design. To our clients, 3twenty9 is much more, offering a venue of informed ideas and skills for their choosing. Our unique company, composed of members all around the country, is connected virtually, allowing us a wider range of experts to meet your design needs despite physical limitations. Adopt an adaptable team of graphic designers, usability ninjas, web developers, screen-printers, writers, photographers, and musicians and you will adopt a network of talented and accessible colleagues.

Our priority is making you look great, project size or budget aside.
